SUMMER BRIELLE

SUMMER LOVIN'

A blonde woman with her hair styled in a high, messy bun is posing on a dark, tufted leather couch. She is wearing a bright pink, ruffled lace bodysuit with a deep V-neckline and a small silver heart-shaped clasp at the waist. She is also wearing dark blue lace stockings. Her right arm is raised, and she is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a simple white wall with a dark door handle visible on the left.

Summer, like her name implies, has a warm and sunny disposition that makes you want to take your clothes off. Go ahead, give in to Summer's allure. Shed your clothes. Peel off those crusty underpants and get a grip on yourself. Summer is here, hot, and spread wide open for you, diddling her thick, throbbing clit until she cums again and again. Look at the heavenly juices that flows from her magical pussy. Hey, Summer! Can you rub that girl-juice on our backs? It heals scars and prevents sunburn!

KARLIE MONTANA & NICKI NINE

FINGER-BANGIN' LADY BOSS

Karlie Montana hates her job working customer service for a major computer repair center. People call with the dumbest questions! The only benefit Karlie can find is her sexy boss, Nicki Nine. Nicki always dresses really nice and has great shoes. Karlie likes it when her boss leans over her from behind and rests her plump breasts on Karlie's slender shoulders. Who knew shoulders could be so sexy? After hours, Nicki props Karlie up on her desk, peels her girlie panties aside, and laps away at her juicy honey pot. Yeah, this job sucks, but at least Karlie gets off most major holiday and on Nicki's hungry tongue.

CICADA 3301

Decoding the Internet's Most Bizarre Puzzle

STORY BY PETER THOMPSON

IT STARTED OUT WITH A DECEPTIVELY SIMPLE POST ON 4CHAN (AN ENGLISH-LANGUAGE IMAGE BOARD WEBSITE)—A BLACK RECTANGLE WITH JUST A FEW LINES OF MODEST WHITE TYPE PRINTED INSIDE. IT WAS LESS THAN 50 WORDS IN ALL. IT WAS A GREETING AND PROPOSITION, AN INVITATION TO SOLVE A NEARLY ENDLESS SERIES OF CRYPTOGRAPHIC PUZZLES AND ALTERNATE REALITY GAMES. THE SIMPLE BLACK RECTANGLE WITH WHITE PRINT WAS ALSO HIDING ONE OF THE MOST COMPLEX AND ENDURING MYSTERIES OF THE INTERNET AGE, A MYSTERY WHOSE SIGNIFICANCE

WE'RE STILL STRUGGLING TO UNRAVEL. THE ENIGMATIC ORGANIZATION, CICADA 3301, HAS POSTED COMPLEX PUZZLES ON SIX OCCASIONS. THE FIRST ONE STARTED ON JANUARY 4, 2012 AND RAN FOR ONE MONTH. A SECOND ROUND BEGAN ONE YEAR LATER ON JANUARY 4, 2013, AND A THIRD ROUND POSTED ON TWITTER ON JANUARY 4, 2014. NO NEW PUZZLES WERE PUBLISHED DURING 2015, BUT A NEW ONE WAS POSTED, AGAIN ON TWITTER, ON JANUARY 5, 2016. THE LAST AND MOST RECENT PUZZLE COMMENCED ON MARCH 14, 2017 AND CONTAINED A COUNTDOWN CLOCK.

PLANTING THE BUG

It's not easy to gain and maintain the undivided attention of a seasoned Internet troll enclave like 4chan, given most of its audience possess attention spans that can be measured in half-memes.

It was a simple black rectangle with a message. It wasn't a picture of remarkable tits. It wasn't a code unlocking an extra character in the video game version of Lego Batman.

Just a simple black rectangle with white type in a now-famous image file, the text of which read:

Hello. We are looking for highly intelligent individuals. To find them, we have devised a test.

There is a message hidden in this image.

Find it, and it will lead you on the road to finding us. We look forward to meeting the few that will make it all the way through.

Good luck.

The mysterious invitation led to the ultimate cryptography challenge. One clue was a book cipher based on infamous cultist Aleister Crowley's "The Book of Law." That led to a Dropbox URL, which ultimately led to a crude image of a cicada. In addition, there was an image of a wooden duck decoy and a link to a song with a guitar humming at a particular kilohertz. When properly interpreted the sound pitch unlocked yet another clue.

It appeared to be a grocery list of enigmas—one after another. There were strange Germanic runes to solve and clues that necessitated a working understanding of Mayan numerals and their complex system of counting. Global GPS coordinates revealed the location of physical clues, which turned out to be pieces of paper wrapped around telephone poles found on several different continents. Clues were found in Warsaw, Poland, in rural Arkansas, Paris, Seoul, South Korea, Seattle, and Miami. Quick Response (QR) Codes were found in Japan, Moscow, Annapolis, and Georgia. There was a phone number to call which when contacted played a message dispatching seekers to yet another source of a clue. Eventually, the few who refused to give up managed to tunnel their way to the surface, just like the cicada itself, and were rewarded with still another URL.

In the five years since it first appeared, Cicada 3301 has become one of the biggest—if not the biggest—and most mysterious puzzles of the Internet Age.

This time, however, they were invited to join a secret society of hacktivists and cryptographers and assist in the development of unbreakable cryptography software meant to ensure the anonymity of world-famous whistleblowers and leakers like Edward Snowden and Chelsea Manning.

That's all we know about Cicada 3301 and even that remains unconfirmed as it comes from people who claim to have solved the puzzle. Nobody really knows for sure because nothing can be absolutely verified. The clues seemed to be created by someone with a fetish for prime numbers. Every time the next layer of the onion was peeled away, seekers found an even thinner, more complex slice right there in their palms.

Hello again. Our search for intelligent individuals now continues.

The first clue is hidden within this image.

Good luck.

Apparently, even attempting to recount the many steps from start to finish is like trying to explain how somebody solves a Rubik's Cube move by move, but using only postcards.

Someone, something, or some organization certainly is going to a lot of trouble to find a probably very limited number of like-minded puzzle masters. But to what end? Everybody has his suspicions.

During World War II, Alan Turing, the godfather of modern computing, in conjunction with British intelligence is known to have used a similar method to recruit potential German code breakers. Turing ran a very complex crossword puzzle seeking untapped genius and encouraged Brits to send in their answers. It is unknown how successful this program was, but as we know now, the Allies were able to crack the German Enigma machine.

More than five years later, little more is known about the group except what they've volunteered: They describe themselves as a "think tank" dedicated to research and development techniques and advocate for their core principals: "liberty, privacy, and security."

Of course "Cicada 3301" is not the name of the group. They sometimes use an image of a Cicada and the messages are sometimes signed by "3301," which is, as we've already said, a very large prime number, which may or may not be of any significance. The group may have no name, but they certainly have an agenda.

Like the Great Sphinx standing guard outside the pyramids of Giza, Cicada 3301 has generated its own mythology and conspiracy theories. Like the shadowy Internet cryptographers who created the group, the riddle that once lay partially buried under Egyptian sands requires round after round of mental gymnastics to be properly understood. And even today

Hello.

The path lies empty; epiphany seeks the devoted.

Libar Primis is the way. Its words are the map, their meaning is the road, and their numbers are the direction.

Seek and you will be found.

Good luck.

Beware false paths. Verify OpenPGP 7A35090F.

Egyptology can't reach a consensus on who built the Sphinx or how old it is.

In the five years since it first appeared, Cicada 3301 has become one of the biggest—if not the biggest—and most mysterious puzzles of the Internet Age. 3301 claim to have simply been trying to recruit code-breaking talent online. They don't claim to be white hats or black hats (good guys or bad), but they do say that

With auburn hair that looks like autumn leaves kissed by the sun, and legs as long as a pervert's rap sheet, Jenny Blighe is the next "big thing" in adult entertainment. "Don't say that! It puts too much pressure on me," Jenny says. "I'm just a simple girl who loves sex. If I can make people happy by getting naked and having sex, then it's a win-win situation for everyone." Hell yeah, Jenny! Speaking of pressure, our balls are bloated beyond belief.

A BUG'S LIFE

Cicadas are rather ugly, noisy, eccentric little winged insects that spend years under the soil before emerging topside to wreak hideous havoc in destructive swarms.

Significantly, there are seven periodical species of cicada that appear every 13 or 17 years, which killing. Certainly if Cicada 3301 was the work of the corporate world, they'd have betrayed their hand by now by actively seeking to copyright their property. But there's been no attempt.

Cicada 3301 seems to follow more in line with some of the Internet's more "out-there" explanations: like those Internet "black holes" where information literally disappears and is never found again.

communicate in strict secrecy with his legions who were often serving on the frontiers of the Roman Empire, sometimes thousands of miles from Rome itself.

IS THERE A CRITIC AMONGST US?

Nobody knows the veracity of the charges, but sometime after the first puzzle had been solved,

Their ideology is encryption. Cicadas themselves are masters of encryption.

is important because both are prime numbers. Biologists have surmised that the long periods of time are a way of tricking predators and making their appearance above ground seem almost random, which helps their survival.

Cicada 3301 has similarly used the vast Siberia of cyberspace with its four billion users and easy anonymity and access as an algorithm to protect their own privacy while pursuing their stated ends.

The Internet is a brave new world of lies, conspiracy theories, sex videos, news, and reality TV personalities. It has gone from a cool place to shop and order pizza without having to speak

So who could be behind Cicada 3301? Who is ultimately pulling the weird puppet strings?

The CIA? The NSA? North Korea? The hacker group Anonymous? WikiLeaks?

Theories run deep and in virtually every direction. The Internet environment is a hothouse that grows stinking conspiracies like orchids.

ENTITY BEHIND THE CURTAIN

It's been reported that terror groups often encrypt secret notes and plans to activate sleeper cells for mayhem in image files similar to the original black and white Cicada 3301 invitation. For centuries the Voynich Manuscript has haunted scholars hoping to break its code. Modern cryptographers participate in what are known as "alternate reality games," of which Cicada 3301 certainly could be one. Corporations from Silicon Valley have used puzzles and tests like Cicada 3301's to recruit fresh new talent to build their super-secure software. The NSA and Britain's security apparatus have admitted to doing the same and even the U.S. Navy has used the coattails of Cicada 3301 to develop a similar "game" for potential Navy recruits.

Or could it be the work of someone interested in developing another Bitcoin phenomenon, the crypto-currency developed in secret by a still-unknown Japanese person using what's called "block chain" technology?

Not surprisingly, the technique of steganography figures prominently into the puzzles of Cicada 3301. Steganography is the process of hiding messages or images within other messages and images. One of the first clues found in the 2012 Cicada 3301 mentioned the name of Julius Caesar, who was not only a great military genius but also invented certain steganography techniques that allowed him to the next year in fact, a gentleman came forward warning people to stay away from Cicada 3301.

He claimed that he had been a member of the group and worked with them for 10 years. He claimed that Cicada 3301 was actually something akin to a religious cult, a tight knit group of freaks that believed in something called "the Global Brain" and compared it to God. He said essentially that the group was headed by a David Koresh-type figure and the entire thing wasn't so much a hoax as it was a purposeful, strategic misdirection. It was actually a kind of high-tech "religious movement" disguised as a progressive scientific organization. He warned people that Cicada 3301 had bad intentions, but he refused to name any of the people actually behind the movement.

JULIUS CAESAR

EXPERIENCE & EXPERIMENT

In a matter of two rapid, easily forgettable decades, the Global Village, the term for the complex interconnectedness of the world and perfect metaphor for the Internet, as communications visionary Marshall McLuhan foresaw way back in the 1970s, has grown from 16 million users in December 1996 to nearly four billion users (more than 60% of the planet) and growing. It's hard to remember what daily life was like before the existence of the web.

Ever since it first emerged from the sinister crypto-womb of the U.S. Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency (now called DARPA) in the late 1960s as a top-secret to an actual human being to playing host to some of humanity's biggest clusterfucks.

Thus, the possibility that the entire Cicada 3301 phenomenon is simply the creation of a couple of trolls living in their parents' basement who created the entire thing as a joke and are still giggling it up at the gullibility of the online community is a slim theory, at best. Moreover, it seems highly unlikely that somebody would go to all of this trouble, succeed in the way that they have succeeded, and then not boast about it.

Another strange characteristic of Cicada 3301 is that thus far there has been no attempt to monetize it. And let's face it everything on the Internet is eventually monetized. That's half the point of the thing: create something that goes viral for whatever reason and then swoop in like Pac Man gobbling up power pellets and make a

Cold War espionage and communications tool used to help monitor Soviet nuclear tests, the Internet has grown up in a unique environment of commercial and social intangibles, a virtual dimension that has never existed in the history of humanity. As such, it is both experience and experiment, subject to developmental mistakes and error-plagued leaps of evolution, like any "living" thing. Unfortunately, puzzles presented to the Internet public with the stated intention of being either a search for cryptographic code-breaking talent or an esoteric formula for obtaining enlightenment. But only the first puzzle can be verified to have come from Cicada 3301. It's very possible that someone picked up the mantle for mutations do occur and there are consequences down the line.

While the Internet has exploded and expanded as fast as any new universe, it now holds more than one million exabytes of data and has transformed virtually every aspect of modern life, it has evolved from the original, quantifiable metaphorical web of nodes and connections spanning the globe first through phone lines and undersea cables to geosynchronous communication satellites, into something deeper and much darker, more murky and profound than the deepest ocean on the most distant uninhabited planet. It has become a challenging, sometimes hateful landscape of digital data in which we no longer really surf, but simply float, hoping to avoid the powerful undertow so it doesn't carry us out to sea.

So far Cicada 3301 has been a series of a second try and has been trolling the public ever since. That's how little we know and can confirm about this shadowy movement.

It's very possible that we'll never know for certain who or what is behind Cicada 3301. As one of their clues reminds us, "Patience is a virtue."

Perhaps that means one day we will know who they are and what they want when whatever they're working on is finally finished. Or perhaps they're working on something right now that's so heinous that they don't want any kind of credit just yet for the fruits of their labors. 3301 could be a terrorist group or human rights activists. They obviously believe in one thing over all else: "the sanctity of absolute privacy."

It's unlikely we'll get a chance to see any of their private search histories any time

Congratulations your month of testing has come to an end out of the thousands who attempted it you are one of only a few who have succeeded.

There is one last step although there will not be any hidden codes or secret messages or physical treasure hunts this last step is only honesty we have always been honest with you and we shall continue to be honest with you and we expect you to be honest with us in return.

You have all wondered who we are and so we shall now tell you we are an international group we have no name we have no symbol we have no membership rosters we do not have a public website and we do not advertise ourselves we are a group of individuals who have proven ourselves much like you have by completing this recruitment contest and we are drawn together by common beliefs a careful reading of the texts used in the contest would have revealed some of these beliefs that tyranny and oppression of any kind must end that censorship is wrong and that privacy is an inalienable right.

We are not a "hacker" group nor are we a "warrior" group we do not engage in illegal activity nor do our members if you are engaged in illegal activity we ask that you cease any and all illegal activities or decline membership at this time we will not ask questions if you decline however if you lie to us we will find out.

You are undoubtedly wondering what it is that we do we are much like a "think tank" in that our primary focus is on researching and developing techniques to aid the ideas we advocate liberty privacy security you have undoubtedly heard of a few of our past projects and if you choose to accept membership we are happy to have you on-board to help with future projects.

Please reply to this email with the answers to the next few questions to continue:

* Do you believe that every human being has a right to privacy and anonymity and is within their rights to use tools which help obtain and maintain privacy cash strong encryption anonymity software etc?

* Do you believe that information should be free?

* Do you believe that censorship harms humanity?

We look forward to hearing from you.

BREAKING THE CODE BREAKER'S HEART

Joel Eriksson, a 34-year-old crypto-security researcher from Sweden, reportedly took on the first Cicada 3301 puzzle armed with a formidable set of skills:

"Source: 'The Man Who Solved The Mysterious Cicada 3301 Puzzle' by Michael Grothaus, fastcompany.com

1. Stegano tools extract message with shift cipher encode.
2. Decoded cipher reveals URL and image of a duck.
3. Stegano tools reveal hidden book code and list of numbers separated by a colon.
4. Book code leads to a Reddit URL replete with Mayan numerals.
5. First key found by translating Mayan numerals.
6. Anonymous Reddit user's original postings reveal 2 images.
7. Stegano tools uncover riddles inside hidden messages.
8. Riddle's answer uncovers a string of digits, a working phone number in Texas.
9. Call to phone number ends with voicemail recording: "Very good. You have done well. There are three prime numbers associated with the original final.jpg image. 3301 is one of them. You will have to find the other two. Multiply all three of these numbers together and add a .com to find the next step. Good luck. Goodbye."
10. Examination of metadata from original image reveals URL with another image of a cicada and a countdown that instructs the code breaker when to return to the site for more information.
11. Countdown ends and image of Cicada is replaced by strings of digits that appear to be GPS coordinates.
12. Coordinates correspond with telephone poles situated in countries around the world. Locals who visit the sites discover physical posters with a cicada image and QR (Quick Response) code.
13. QR code scans reveal two more images and more hidden info, including text from the William Gibson poem "Agrippa".
14. Reapplication of book code to Gibson's poem directs one to an address on the anonymous Tor network.
15. Message from Cicada 3301 expresses the group's general dissatisfaction with code breakers who've shared parts of the puzzle along the way with other code breakers without any one member first completing all the steps.
16. All future contact with Cicada 3301 ends.

She caps off the bawdy butt-fuck by slurping the cum from Mike's cock and flaunting her delectable derriere one final time.

Sarah Banks

Sarah sports braces, a bubbly booty, and a spunky style. The mocha-skinned slut strips and poses for Mike. She gives a lewd, sloppy blow job with intense deep throating. The pervy director lubes up his thick prick and pries open Sarah's sweet sphincter. Cute Sarah twerks on Mike's big boner, her plump rump wriggling with every thrust. Sarah gushes spit as she lewdly sucks cock ass-to-mouth, and she swallows down a healthy helping of hot splooge.

Sara St. Clair

Lusty newbie Sara St. Clair, a dazzling, busty blonde, shows perverted anal stud Mike what she's got! Pantless in a tiny skirt and clear heels, the fun-loving slut does a quick striptease, and then kneels for a tempestuous, drooling blow job. Sara spreads her legs and welcomes Mike's big boner into her sphincter. The wild vixen gives an intense, ass-to-mouth blow job and takes a relentless rectal reaming. Sara crams a giant butt plug up her ass and guzzles down Mike's creamy load.

LEXI BELLE

JUST GOT LAID

Lexi Belle feels good today because she got laid last night. But this nasty girl doesn't even know the name of last night's lover. "Yes I do!" Lexi says, showing off her drool-worthy lithe figure. "It was Jeff ... or Jack. Wait ... maybe his name was Bartholomew. Either way, he had a thick, eight-inch, blue-veined prick in his pants and he knew how to fuck me with that thing!" Lucky guy, Lexi! If you ever want to ride three thin inches, give us a call!

HIGH SOCIETY'S

BAD GIRL CONFESSIONS

KENDRA LUST

PORN VALLEY, CA—WE AT HIGH SOCIETY MAKE IT A POINT TO INTERVIEW THE SUPERSTARS OF PORN, AND YOU DON'T GET BIGGER THAN KENDRA LUST. NOT ONLY IS SHE THE CURRENT, 2017 AVN MILF OF THE YEAR, BUT KENDRA HAS BEEN COLLECTING AWARDS FOR TOP MILF PERFORMER SINCE SHE FIRST ENTERED PORN JUST A FEW YEARS AGO. KENDRA IS DEFINITELY THE KIND OF MOM WE WISH OUR FRIENDS HAD WHEN WE DROPPED BY. JUST IMAGINE ALL THE WET DREAMS!

HIGH SOCIETY: Have you ever used sex to get out of trouble? Did it work?

KENDRA LUST: Haven't we all? I remember when I was in college working retail I was banging my boss so I could get weekends off! It was fun, so I guess I wasn't using sex to get out of trouble, but used it to get my way. [Laughs]

HS: Ever have sex in your parent's house while they were there?

KL: Yes! My dad was sleeping and my mom was at work. [Laughs] I was a naughty college girl.

HS: Have you ever been caught having sex? Were you embarrassed or did the idea of getting caught excite you?

KL: Yes. I was caught before! I like the excitement and thrill of it actually.

HS: Have you ever had a one-night stand? If so, how many?

KL: I have only had two one-night stands. I actually knew the guys and finally had sex with them. Both of them were big disappointments!

HS: Ever had threesomes, group sex, or been involved in an orgy before you got into porn?

KL: Yes! I love to watch my partner getting pleased with the right girl. Orgies have never been my thing. I think it's too hard to have all attractive people in an orgy and I am definitely not taking "One for the team!" [Laughs]

HS: Ever masturbated in public?

KL: Yes, under a table at a Five Star restaurant. A glass of fine wine in one hand and the other hand rubbing my wet, throbbing clit.

HS: Where's the hottest place you ever had sex in your personal life?

KL: Against an open window overlooking a busy street.

HS: What's one sex toy you can't live without?

Hitachi.

HS: Ever have sex with someone you couldn't remember having sex with?

KL: Yes. Not all sex partners are memorable.

HS: If you won the lottery, would you quit porn? What would you do?

KL: I would probably still be involved with the industry somehow. I would travel the world, do some charity work for children, and take care of my family.

HS: Can you describe a funny situation that happened to you or someone else on a porn set?

KL: Yes. I saw a guy slide across the room using lube and then he actually banged his balls into the wall. Hilarious. You just had to be there.

HS: Do you tend to date bad boys?

KL: I like a guy who is somewhat of a bad boy. I like a man's man. A guy that can handle himself, not too big of an ego, clean cut, smart, funny, confident, ambitious, but also a gentlemen. I prefer men who are at least 5'10" and 185 pounds or more.

HS: Do you have any sexual regrets?

KL: Don't we all? [Laughs]

HS: Anything you'd like to say in closing to our readers?

KL: Thank you for supporting my work. I love being able to express my sexuality in a time and a culture where it is not necessarily accepted. I hope that the United States eventually embraces more of a European view on sexuality. Lastly, what I do for a living does not define who I am as a person. #Lustarmy

JANA JORDAN &
GEORGIA JONES

HEADED
THAN ONE

The red, double-headed dildo is named Gary, and Jana bought it at a pawnshop in New Orleans. Sure, used sex toys can be dicey, but Jana simply fell in love with Gary the moment she saw him. Gary was so sweet, and Jana knew he'd clean up real nice! Jana introduced Gary to her friend Georgia about a week later. Georgia took an immediate liking to Gary, so much so, that Jana got a bit jealous. Good thing Gary has two heads! Grab a mushroom tip and hop aboard, ladies. Once your clits meet in the middle everyone will feel much better!
